

Excellence in music performance for a better Philippines

Ang Misyon & The Orchestra of the Filipino Youth

Ang Misyon is anchored on the belief that social change can take place through the learning of orchestral music.

Through its projects the organization hopes to enhance the country's identity by creating alternative career paths in classical music and redeveloping the arts & culture scene.

Beginnings

Ang Misyon was founded in 2012 by FPH Chairman Federico R. Lopez, ABS-CBN Corporation Chairman Emeritus Eugenio Lopez III, and Concert Pianist Jovianney Emmanuel Cruz

Orchestra Conductor

Joshua Dos Santos graduated from El Sistema, a globally renowned music program originating in Venezuela. He trained under its founder, Maestro Jose Antonio Abreu. Joshua made his conducting debut at 16 years old and is considered one of the most versatile conductors of this generation.

1

OUR MISSION

Nurture talented, less privileged youth through the transformative power of orchestral music

2

WHERE DO WE WORK?

We work with 16 Community Youth Orchestras in municipalities across NCR, Region II, Region III, Region IV-A and Region VII.

3

HOW MANY HAVE WE HELPED?

As of September 2018, more than 900 scholars!

The Orchestra of the Filipino Youth (OFY) is an ensemble of young musicians from mostly underprivileged families across Luzon and Visayas. Its members are hand-picked for their talent, passion, and need.

Since its inception in 2012, OFY scholars have rendered numerous performances in various venues in Metro Manila as well as in Isabela, Pampanga, Batangas, Laguna, Cavite, Iloilo and Dumaguete. They have also performed abroad in Malaysia, and the United States.

How does Ang Misyon Work?

The organization provides programs and services designed to benefit its scholars and stakeholders. These include access to:

- Professional music lessons and materials based on an “AMI” curriculum
- Instrument support
- Opportunities for local and international performances
- Opportunities to serve as junior mentors to younger scholars
- Values formation and counselling

“I have seen the musical hearts of Filipinos up close. I am certain that music is going to be able to change their lives and become a social force that’s so great, it will be unstoppable.”

-Federico R. Lopez

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Ang Misyon believes it can create career paths for more youth in the Philippines through orchestral music. Our efforts towards social change will scale faster with the participation of businesses and the larger community. We actively seek partnerships to sustain our work and create a brighter future for Filipino youth.
